IQRAA TRUST(SOUTH AFRICA)

Promotion of Access to Information Act Manual December 2011

1. INTRODUCTION

The Promotion of Access to Information Act No 2 of 2000 was enacted to give effect to the constitutional right of access to any information that is held by another person and that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights as well as to provide for matters connected therewith.

This manual is to assist potential requesters as to the procedure to be followed when requesting access to information from Iqraa Trust(South Africa) in terms of the Act.

This manual may be amended from time to time and any new versions of the manual will be made public.

2. PURPOSE OF THE MANUAL

This manual is intended to foster and proclaim Iqraa Trust(South Africa)'s commitment to fostering a culture of transparency and accountability within the organisation as a whole, by giving effect to the right to access information that is required for the exercise or protection of any right and to actively promote a society in which the people of South Africa have effective access to information to enable them to more fully exercise and protect their rights.

In order to promote the effective governance of all private institutions Iqraa Trust(South Africa) recognises the fundamental requirement that all the people of South Africa be empowered and educated to understand their rights in terms of this Act in order for them to exercise their rights in relation to all institutions, whether those institutions are of a private or public nature.

In following the example set out in terms of Section 36 of the Constitution of South Africa (Act 108 of 1996), Section 9 of the Act recognises that such right to access information cannot be unlimited and should be subject to justifiable limitations.

3. DEFINITIONS

“Client” refers to any natural or juristic entity that receives services from Iqraa Trust(South Africa) and “customer” has a similar meaning.

“Employee” refers to any person who works for or provides services to or on behalf of the organisation, and receives or is entitled to receive remuneration, and any other person who assists in carrying out or conducting the business of the organisation, and who has a written contract of employment with Iqraa Trust(South Africa).

“Information Officer” means a person or persons acting on behalf of Iqraa Trust(South Africa) who is responsible for discharging the duties and responsibilities assigned to the “head” of Iqraa Trust(South Africa), as prescribed in terms of this Act, and may include a deputy information officer.

“Organisation” refers to Iqraa Trust(South Africa)

“Other Requester” means any requester other than a personal requester.

“Personal Requester” means a requester who is seeking to access a record containing personal information about that requester.

“Requester” means any person making a request for access to a record that is under the control of Iqraa Trust(South Africa).

“Third Party” means any natural or juristic person other than the requester or such party acting on behalf of the requester or Iqraa Trust(South Africa) itself.

6. OVERVIEW AND STRUCTURE OF IQRAA TRUST(SOUTH AFRICA)

Iqraa Trust was established in 1994. Iqraa Trust is a registered trust. Therefore the policies, activities and delegation of authority comply with the provisions of the Trust Deed..

Iqraa Trust is registered as a Non Profit Organisation(NPO) with the Department of Social Development.

Iqraa Trust is a registered Public Benefit Organisation with the South African Revenue Services (SARS) in South Africa.

Iqraa Trust has been granted Section 18A status by SARS

The beneficiaries of the trust are charitable, welfare and educational institutions which are engaged in humanitarian activities. Over the years the Trust has facilitated and promoted capacity building within organisations by funding the development of infrastructure, equipment and the acquisition of skills.

The Trust has also provided assistance for humanitarian programmes and projects designed to alleviate the effects of poverty and disease, for drug rehabilitation and to provide relief for the victims of domestic violence and sexual abuse. The scope of the Trust's activities covers the fields of education, health, welfare and social development. In emergencies the Trust has also provided assistance for disaster relief.

7. IQRAA TRUST'S PHILOSOPHY ON ACCESS TO INFORMATION

Iqraa Trust supports the intended purpose of the Act, namely, to give effect to the constitutional right of access to any information held by public or private bodies, and which is required for the exercise or protection of any rights. It is Iqraa Trust's policy therefore to endeavour to timeously assist Requesters as far as possible.

Certain records can be accessed without the submission of a formal request (refer to Section 13 of this document for particulars regarding formal requests)including:

- Information available on Iqraa Trust website
- Promotional material
- Records lodged with various statutory bodies.

These records can be accessed by contacting Iqraa Trust's Head Office or the respective statutory body, as appropriate

9. ACCESS TO RECORDS HELD BY IQRAA TRUST(SOUTH AFRICA)

To facilitate the processing of a request, the requester must:-

- Use the prescribed form attached to this manual or on Iqraa Trust(South Africa's)website <http://www.iqraatrust.org>
- Address the request to the Information Officer or authorised person supplied within this manual, and fax or e-mail the request form as per provided details;
- Provide sufficient particulars to enable the Information Officer of the Organisation to identify the record/s requested;
- The requester must indicate in which form (medium/method) access is required;
- Specify a postal address or fax number of the requester;
- Identify the right the requester is seeking to exercise or protect and provide an explanation of why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of that right;
- If the requester, in addition to a written reply, intends to be informed of the decision on the request in any other manner, state that manner and the necessary particulars to be so informed;
- If the request is made on behalf of another person, submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the reasonable satisfaction of the organisation.

10. . PRESCRIBED FEES

On receipt of a request for access to information, the Information Officer, or duly authorised person, will by notice require the requester, other than a personal requester, to pay the prescribed fee as set out below before processing the request.

If the search for the record has been made and the preparation of the record for disclosure, including arrangements to make it available in the requested form, requires more than the hours prescribed in the regulations for this purpose, the authorised person shall notify the requester to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion of the access fee.

A requester, whose request for access has been granted, must pay an access fee for reproduction and for search and preparation, and for any time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure, including making arrangements to make it available in the requested form.

If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, the deposit will be repaid to the requester.

The applicable fees are prescribed in terms of the regulations that relate to the Promotion of Access to Information Act.

There are two basic types of fees applicable in terms of the Promotion of Access to Information Act – “request” and “access” fees.

- The non-refundable request fee (currently R57.00 inclusive of VAT) is payable on submission of the request for access to a record (unless the request is for personal records of the Requester in which event there is no applicable fee).
- The access fee is payable prior to gaining access to the records in the required form. The applicable access fees are prescribed in terms of Part III of Annexure A as identified in Government Notice Number 187, Regulation 11.

If access is required to personal information of the Requester, payment of a request fee is not required.

- The Manual can also be obtained from The South African Human Rights Commission

12. REMEDIES AVAILABLE TO A REQUESTER UPON REFUSAL OF ACCESS

a) Internal remedies:

Iqraa Trust(South Africa) does not have any internal appeal procedures that may be followed after a request for access information has been refused. As such, the decision made by the information officer is final, and Requesters will have to exercise such external remedies at their disposal if the request for information is refused and the Requester is not satisfied with the answer supplied by the information officer.

b) External remedies:

A requester that is dissatisfied with an Information Officer's refusal to disclose information, may within 30 days of notification of the decision, apply to an competent court for relief. Likewise, a third party that is dissatisfied with an Information Officer's decision not to grant a request for information, may within 30 days of notification of the decision, apply to a competent court for relief.

For purposes of the Act, the courts that have jurisdiction over these applications are the Constitutional Court, the High Court or another court with similar status.

13. REQUEST PROCEDURE

The requester must comply with all the procedural requirements contained in the Act relating to the request for access to a record.

The requester must complete the prescribed form enclosed herewith in ANNEXURE 1 and submit same as well as payment of a request fee (if applicable) and a deposit, where a request is made for access to information relating to a third party, to the Information Officer at the postal or physical address, fax number or electronic mail address as stated in Section 4 above.

The prescribed form must be completed with enough particularity at least to enable the Information Officer to identify the following:

- o The record or records required by the requester;
- o The identity of the requester and such person acting on behalf of the requester where applicable;
- o What form of access is required, if the request is granted;
- o The telephone number, postal address or fax number of the requester (within the Republic of South Africa).

Iqraa Trust's Information Officer will respond to the Iqraa Trust request within 30 days of receiving the request by indicating whether the request for access has been granted.

It should be noted that the successful completion and submission of an access request form does not automatically allow the Requester access to the requested record.

The request form must be completed CLEARLY and COMPLETELY in block letters.

If there is insufficient space on the printed request form in which to answer a question, additional information must be provided on a separate page that is clearly marked and referenced.

Denial of access

Access may be refused under limited circumstances including:

- Protecting personal information that Iqraa Trust(SouthAfrica)holds about a third person (who is a natural person) from unreasonable disclosure;
- Protecting commercial information that we hold about a third party (for example trade secrets: financial, commercial, scientific or technical information that may harm the commercial or financial interests of a third party);
- If disclosure would result in a breach of a duty of confidence owed to a third party;
- If disclosure would jeopardize the safety or life of an individual;
- If disclosure would prejudice or impair the security or property or means of transport;
- If disclosure would prejudice or impair the protection of a person in accordance with a witness protection scheme;
- If disclosure would prejudice or impair the protection of the safety of the public;
- The record is privileged from production in legal proceedings unless the privilege has been waived;
- If the record is a computer programme;
- Disclosure of the record will put Iqraa Trust(South Africa) at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations or prejudice it in commercial competition;
- Disclosure of the record (containing trade secrets, financial, commercial, scientific, or technical information) would harm the commercial or financial interests of Iqraa Trust(South Africa); and
- Records containing information about research being carried out or about to be carried out on behalf of a third party or Iqraa Trust(South Africa)

Request for access to information about third parties

If access is requested to a record that contains information about a third party, Iqraa Trust is obliged to attempt to contact this third party to inform them of the request and to give them an opportunity to respond by either consenting to the access or by providing reasons why the access should be denied.

In the event that the third party furnishes reasons for the support or denial of access, Iqraa Trust's designated Information Officer will consider these reasons in determining whether access should be granted.

Records that cannot be found or that do not exist

If Iqraa Trust(South Africa) has searched for a record and concludes that it either does not exist or cannot be found, the Requester will be notified by way of an affidavit or affirmation that it is not possible to give access to the requested record as the Organisation is unable to locate it. Iqraa Trust will also provide the Requester with details on the steps that were taken to try to locate the record. If at a later stage the record is located, Iqraa Trust(South Africa) will grant the Requester access, provided that access is not prohibited in terms of Chapter 4 of Part 3 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act.
